

Call for AAVS e-Newsletter article!

AAVS is calling for short articles by AAVS Members for the first issue of the AAVS e-Newsletter to be published this spring. The e-newsletter will be sent to AAVS Members and posted on the AAVS website.

Guideline for authors

Theme: Veterinary education in the time of COVID-19

Examples of topics:

- Current situation
- Experience of transitioning to virtual platform
- Ideas for online assessment
- Contributions to COVID-19 response

Language: English

Lengths: Suggested 200-300 words

Image (photos, illustrations, graphs etc.): maximum of 3 files (optional)

Submission: Please submit the article (preferably in MS Word) by email to the AAVS Office (secretary@aavs.jp) along with the completed submission form and optional image files. The submission should be by the head of the veterinary institution or his/her representative with the head of the institution in copy.

Deadline: 22 March 2021

Once articles are submitted, the AAVS Office will review and may contact the authors for some questions/clarification.

For any questions, please contact AAVS Office (secretary@aavs.jp)
